My Inspiration

“Real change, enduring change, happens one step at a time.”

“As women achieve power, the barriers will fall.
As society sees what women can do,
As women see what women can do,
There will be more women out there doing things,
And we'll all be better off for it”

Nika's Eagle Project

My Eagle Project provided individualized toiletry bags containing toothpaste, toothbrushes, hairbrushes, hand lotion, deodorant, and lip balm to 70 women residing in the Sophia Way Women's shelter. The Sophia Way Organizations' mission is to end homelessness for women in King County.

My goal was to provide basic necessities to the residents as a first step towards self-confidence, independence and jobs by reducing the need to worry about purchasing essentials and focusing on what they can achieve and accomplish. We wrote handwritten cards to be put into the toiletry bags as a form of encouragement for the women in the shelter. My project ultimately helped all the female residents (30 women in Sophia's Place in Bellevue and 40 women in Helen's Place in Kirkland) to obtain much-needed supplies.

I want to thank my Eagle Project adult supervisor, Mr. Jon Schill and my Eagle Coach, Mr. Dale Rae. In addition, I send thanks to all my fellow scouts who participated and aided in the completion of my project. Finally, I thank my parents for always encouraging me to work towards anything I set my mind to – you've both been the best cheerleaders anyone could ever ask for.
